

SPORTSMANSHIP EXPECTATIONS
Of the Officials

- ❑ Accept your role in an unassuming manner. Showboating and over-officiating are not acceptable.
- ❑ Maintain confidence and poise, controlling the contest from start to finish.
- ❑ Know the rules of the game thoroughly and abide by the established Code of Ethics.
- ❑ Publicly shake hands with coaches of both teams before the contest.
- ❑ Never exhibit emotions or argue with participants and coaches when enforcing rules.
- ❑ When watching a game as a spectator, giving the officials the same respect you expect to receive when working a contest.